

We're allways in prison (4.2014)

1.) You are born, you got this body and you can't change
You look around you got this brain you are closed in a grange
You work like an ass but you'r captured in a range
Nothing is possible – we're always in prison

2.) You got no parents, no care, so you are lost
Y' got no friends, no hold, you 'r tossed Ev'rything 's goin down, no success, (only frost)
Nothing is possible, your 're always in prison

3.) They look TV - the agitator cries it loud: "Go to war!
We are bigger than the other, shut him down, he 's a whore
So you can turn to a hero, more and more!"
If this is possible, his brain is a prison

4.) They come from Africa, for luck, work and shelter
They are not welcomed cause Europe is not a melter
So they must learn now it's just another swelter
Nothing is possible – they feel like in prison

5,) Well if the sun is shining ev'ry day and ev'ry stranger is welcomed, you can say we live together and we don't need any sway if this is possible – we 're all in heaven
